

Speakers' Knowledge of English, Spanish, and Korean

This study involves up to three online sessions, dependent on your language background. You will be asked to complete a sentence judgment task.

Eligible persons:

1. Native Spanish or Korean speakers aged 18 or older who have resided in the United States for less than 5 years. English must NOT be your first language.
2. Native English speakers aged 18 or older who have at least intermediate proficiency in Korean. You must NOT know any other languages.
3. English-Spanish bilinguals aged 18 or older who have at least intermediate proficiency in Korean. You must NOT know any other languages.

Volunteers will be paid electronically or receive course credit for their participation. The amount of course credit will be determined by your instructor.

To sign up/for questions, please send an email to isilve2@illinois.edu.

Participation is confidential.
